The subject report is rendered to HQ office annually so as to reach there latest by 10th of the July every year. Accordingly this office had called for the subject report by 15th June 2015 so that the same could be consolidated and submitted to HQ office in due time. As repeated reminders are coming from HQ office, CGDA, non submission of the subject report has been viewed very seriously by the Competent Authority. Hence you are directed to explain the reason for non-submission of the report on due time and state as to why the disciplinary action may not be initiated against you for non-compliance of the instructions of Main Office in terms of Para 276 of OM Part-I.
